Quintessentially Caribbean

Of the three U.S. Virgin Islands, Saint John is the most idyllic and pristine. With two-thirds of the island being untouched by development, it is renowned for its soft white sandy beaches, and for its turquoise bays—abound with a rainbow of fish and coral.

Imagine yourself in this tropical paradise, enjoying magnificent sunsets and stargazing ... from a private villa nestled in one of the island's lush velvet hills ... an elegant retreat that is rightfully named, Starstruck.

Mediterranean Elegance ...

... Starstruck's indoor and outdoor living spaces flow into one another, rendering a perfect blend of luxury and natural splendor. Whether you seek a place in the sun or a spot with a shady breeze, you will be hard-pressed to find one corner of the villa that does not offer serenity and a breathtaking vista.

To complete the setting, the decor of each bedroom suite has a particular Mediterranean region in mind: Provence France and Gibraltar Royale on the upper level; Spanish Seaport and Italian Countryside on the lower level. These four suites have their own private baths with double sinks.

In-town Attractions

When inclined to venture beyond your hilltop hideaway, take an easy ride into town. Despite an unspoiled locale, Saint John still offers every facility and amenity one would expect to find at a major resort.

- Quick access by ferry from St. Thomas
- Ample provisioning options, including gourmet delicatessens, fresh foods, baked goods, wines and spirits
- Luxurious shops, art galleries and studios
- An array of bars and cafes
- Dine-out options that range from candlelight cuisine to beach front barbecues
- World-class entertainment

Earthy Adventures

Your idea of recreation may be low-key, or it may be more athletic in nature. Either way, "down-to-earth" is protocol to all island activities. Here are some of the many options:

- Snorkeling
- Fishing & diving
- Horseback riding
- Donkey trails
- Hiking
- Rock-climbing
- Kayaking
- Touring national parks
- Twilight cruises
- Exploring historic ruins
